

STAGING THAT SELLS

A GUIDE TO STRATEGICALLY STAGING YOUR HOME

DANIELLE KARSCH

Why Should I Stage My Home?

Staging a home is a strategic marketing tool used by sellers to help buyers imagine themselves living in your home and fall in love with their property. Staging is more than just putting a new welcome mat in front of the door and getting new throw pillows - when done correctly it can help a home sell for more money in a shorter amount of time.

83%

of real estate agents said staging made it easier for a buyer to visualize the property as a future home.

40%

of buyers' agents said that home staging had an effect on most buyers' view of the home.

Advantages of Staging Your Home

- ⊕ Staging makes the listing photos look phenomenal, attracting more buyers into the home
- ⊕ Staging allows buyers to envision themselves living in your home
- ⊕ Staging has been proven to get a higher price in shorter time

Disadvantages of Staging Your Home

- ⊖ Staging can take time to set up and take down after selling
- ⊖ Staging can be costly when hiring a professional stager company
- ⊖ If done poorly, staging may not be in the buyers' taste

Staging Secrets

01

Make a great first impression. No time or budget to do the entire house? Focus on the entryway and living room. Consider a statement chandelier, a cozy entryway, or a pop of color on the front door.

02

Clarify each room's purpose by dividing large rooms into smaller seating areas. Have a space that's no man's land? Use furniture and household items you have on hand and give it a purpose (office, craft room, guest bedroom, etc.).

03

Consider the scale, texture, and tone of each room. Everything should "fit" and be visually appealing. Translation? Get rid of any unnecessary furniture that's cluttering up the room.

04

Give attention to your great outdoors. Curb appeal – it's a thing. Buyers will love seeing new landscaping, clean walkways, and bright lighting.

DIY Staging Checklist

CREATE A GAME PLAN

- Walk through your home, room by room as if you are a buyer and take notes on what needs to be done
- Consider having a home inspector come and see if anything needs to be repaired
- Have a yard sale and throw out anything you do not need anymore (this will make packing up to move easier, too!)

REPAIRS TO CONSIDER

- Repaint and clean walls. Using light, neutral shades have been shown to be more appealing to potential buyers. In the kitchen paint baseboards, kitchen cabinets, trim, molding
- Landscape. Add some color with flowers and shrubs. Keep the lawn mowed and remove weeds
- Upgrade lighting. Swap out old light bulbs with new brighter bulbs. Add more lamps and accent lighting to brighten up darker rooms.
- Replace old appliances. When buyers know they don't need to replace appliances for years, they have a much easier time saying "yes to the address"
- Consider renewing floor finishes and replacing old carpets. Flooring is one of the first things a potential buyer will see and can make or break it for them. Cleaning or renewing your floors can result in a great return.
